It's Possible to Improve Your Eyesight Naturally

Hafez, Mohamed (School: Saint Fatima Abbassia Language School)

This project solving the Myopia disease by using a software program that can be displayed the PC, Mobile phone… etc. This is software program is developed based on the methodology of Leo Angar and William Bates in order to strength the eye muscles. Moreover, this software is impeded in a full system that covers the defects of Bates' methodology as below: First: Overcome the increasing of the eyesight problem (Myopia). Second: Treating the myopia via using several scenes. Third: Stability of treatment results via using some exercise which decreasing gradually based on each patient cases and needs.

Awards Won: