

A Novel PCA-Based Wishart Filtering Method for Reduction of Unstructured Noise in fMRI and Connectomes to Improve Diagnosis of Neurodegenerative Diseases

Boddu, Nikhil (School: Marquette High School)

With increasing interest in using fMRI and functional connectivity networks to understand and diagnose neurodegeneration, advanced method for image processing are necessary to produce highly structured in

Awards Won:
Drexel University: Full tuition scholarship $200,000